The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is unclear how the rope is compressed between the hub and the base.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

Claims 1,2,6,9,10 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Matts.

Claims 11-17 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Novak, note fig.3.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matts in view of Japanese pat. 34598. Matts teaches the claimed method with the exception of the pivotally attached cover. The Japanese pat. Shows a pivotally cover 1. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Matts to comprise a pivotally attached cover to facilitate access within his device.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matts in view of Petzl. Matts teaches the claimed method with the exception of the sheaved hub configured with a straight portion. Petzl at 14 shows a sheaved hub with a straight portion. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Matts for his hub to comprise a sheaved hub with a straight portion to provide a seating for the rope in the area of engagement of the rope with his sheave, and to lessen the material of which the hub is made in the area of non-engagement with the rope.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire

THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
